An Update from Your Senior Warden

Hello Everyone. Here is what I have for you today-

We are moving forward with our search and I have this information to share, from Rev. Mary Thorpe with the Diocese of Virginia. Due to our size and our search option, we do not need a search committee like we have had in the past. The Vestry acts in this capacity, with the input of the parish. We will need a parishioner or two to visit priests we are considering at their current churches, to see them preach and celebrate the Eucharist. Lil Salley has agreed to coordinate this. If you are interested in making one or more of these visits, please let her know.

Waynesboro Choral Society presents "How Great Thou Art," a musical portrayal of Jesus' last days complete with full choir and orchestra. Performances are March 25, 30, and 31 at 7:30PM at Main Street UMC in Waynesboro. Tickets are free, but must be secured ahead of time for the performance you wish to attend. Let Brian or Amy know if you are interested by Sunday, March 18.

Big thanks go to Ashby Kindler and Ben Brewster who have made the needed changes so that our finances continue smoothly, as always. This involved Ben getting stuck in the “bus loop” at my school. If you’ve ever been in a bus loop, you know how truly terrifying that can be if you are not a regular!

Grace Cangilosi will be joining us this Sunday and we look forward to seeing her again.

I hope you are all having a peaceful, happy week!

Judy Crosby
